IMPORTANT INFORMATION ABOUT PROCEDURES FOR OPENING A NEW ACCOUNT

To help the government fight the funding of terrorism and money laundering activities, federal law requires all financial institutions to obtain, verify, and record information that identifies each person when opening a new account. What this means for you: When you open an account, we will ask for your name, address, date of birth, and other information that will allow us to identify you. We may also ask to see your driver's license or other identifying documents.

ACCOUNT OWNERSHIP SELECTION

Party Initials	Description
_____	Choose ONE of the following forms of account ownership by placing your initials next to the chosen form of ownership. The type of account you select may determine how property passes on your death. Your will may not control the disposition of funds held in some of the following forms of account ownership. You may choose to designate one or more convenience signers on an account, even if the account is not a convenience account. A designated convenience signer may make transactions on your behalf during your lifetime, but does not own the account during your lifetime. The designated convenience signer owns the account on your death only if the convenience signer is also designated as a P.O.D. payee or trust account beneficiary. The selection you make below will apply to all the accounts listed in the "ACCOUNT TYPE" section.
_____	SINGLE PARTY ACCOUNT WITHOUT PAYABLE ON DEATH (POD) DESIGNATION. The party to the account owns the account. The parties to the account own the account in proportion to the parties' net contributions to the account. The financial institution may pay any sum in the account to a party at any time. On the death of a party, the party's ownership of the account passes to the surviving parties. Parties to the account are listed as Member/Owner and Joint Owner.
